

Open-Ended Questions

1. As they pulled into the driveway, the headlights of the car lit up the bashed bike, which had been carefully propped up next to the front door.

Write down a word that could replace pulled in the sentence above.

2. Look at the paragraph beginning: His memory was....
Why didn't Josh know what had caused his accident?
3. Josh's mum studied the bike as she unlocked the front door. "You are one lucky boy," she said as she helped him take off his jacket.
Why did Josh's mum tell him that he was a lucky boy?
4. Look at the paragraph beginning: Josh had always... to the paragraph ending: ...he was staring at.
Why could being called Sweetcorn Head be considered a small price to pay for wearing a helmet?
5. Her mum gave her a cold stare.
What is meant by a cold stare?